

The Latest Musical Craze--The Town's Already Whistling It and Stepping It

THE latest society novelty dance, composed by the well-known American composer, Charles H. Roth, whose musical successes are many, including "My Dream of the U. S. A.," "There's a Spark of Love Still Burning in the Embers of My Heart," "Storm Cloud," "When Your Heart Grows Weary, Dearie," "Alone," "The Hoosier Girl I Loved in Old Vincennes," "Rosie O'Moore," "I Love You, I Can't Forget," "A Sailor of the U. S. A.," "My Lady of the Embassy Waltzes," "The Virginia Creeper Rag," etc.

Already this new dance bids fair to place the others more or less famous trots in the background. It gives opportunity for the acme of grace as dance music without any semblance of the vulgar or inartistic in any sense of the word.
